President, 2004
Case Western Reserve University

Where is she now?

I'm still at the Weatherhead School of Management, Case Western Reserve University - it's been 27 years!

How I got involved with OACRAO...

I completed a committee volunteer form at the end of my first OACRAO meeting, giving my top three choices. I was added to the Admissions and Financial Aid Committee and helped design an admissions survey for a presentation at the next year's conference. (Note: I learned a lot about admissions that year!)

My favorite "fun" OACRAO Memory...

Many from past conferences... playing Pictionary, Ohio U. colleagues taking a dunk in the pool, high-powered ping-pong challenges, dinner "under the wings" in Dayton, NCAA museum in Indy, trying to be a 'teapot' ... All encompass having fun with colleagues!

My favorite "serious" OACRAO memory...

Working with professional and energetic colleagues to bring about an outstanding annual conference and keeping abreast of membership needs. When I once asked someone who had attended her first OACRAO and first AACRAO meetings how she liked the meetings after her first year in the organizations, she said she enjoyed the OACRAO meeting more as the sessions were more pertinent to her position and everyone was so friendly and helpful. To me, this is the strength of our organization!
