June greetings to all of you!

I hope this finds you well into your summer routine, both at work and at home. Ohio seems to have skipped spring and jumped into summer.

June begins a busy summer of OACRAO events. The annual residency workshop took place on the 1st day of the month. You can read more in this newsletter. Next month we will host the Staff Development Workshop and OACRAO Summer Institute will be offered in August. Learn more about those events and how to register in this newsletter edition also!

Of course, the big event of the year is Annual Conference. The Local Arrangements Committee has been working on the food and fun while the program committee has created some substantive and informative sessions. It is the whole package! This conference is being held at a resort and conference center in Huron and is right down the road from Cedar Point and several other family attractions. Make plans now to take the whole family and make a weekend of it! The date of the conference makes it a good time to recharge from the opening of school.

You will see further information in this newsletter and can get registered from here as well. Book your room soon as we have a

OACRAO CONFERENCE 2018

Venture out with OACRAO is the theme of this year's conference October 3rd – 5th at Sawmill Creek Resort. For those new to OACRAO, the annual meeting is a three-day event with sessions developed for registrar and admissions professionals. Do not miss the opportunity to learn about new state and federal legislation, meet with exhibitors to learn about the latest in products and services, explore best practices, and of course, network.

The Local Arrangement Committee (LAC) is busy planning activities, entertainment and meals for you to enjoy. LAC's scope of responsibilities include arrangement of conference physical facilities, recommendation of a conference theme, development and distribution of materials related to the conference, arranging meals and social activities, arranging for exhibits and exhibitors, arranging for equipment, coordinating registration, reserving lodging for the conference, and developing a conference budget/financial report, to name a few. A special thank you to the sub-committee members for all the work they are doing this year.

Detailed information will be available soon on the conference website at OHIO AACRAO. Registration is open on 123 sign-up!

RESIDENCY WORKSHOP

On the rainy first day of June, the residency experts from across the state gathered at The Ohio State University for the 2018 OACRAO Residency Workshop. The attendees were met with a panel of experts made up of Michelle Chavanne from the Ohio Department of Higher Education General Counsel, Lisa Delaney from The Ohio State University, Katie Tadlock from Ohio University, and Tracy Sowards from Columbus State Community College. Powerpoint prepared, they were ready to take on any and all burning residency questions.

The panel did not disappoint – they answered complicated residency questions with gusto and knowledge. Many first-time residency officers attended along with some seasoned veterans, which fed into lively discussions. Across the room, hands went up with answers or clarification for how they interpret or how their school handles “x” scenario.

At lunch, some wonderful discussion ensued. Such as “How does your school handle ____?” or discussing residency topics and best practices. I know enough about residency just to be dangerous! But, even I picked up on some of the intricacies of residency that I only heard in passing conversations with the University of Cincinnati residency expert.

Some of the discussions were enough to make your head swim. Conditional residency, residency reclassification, Forever Buckeye, DACA students and the documentation needed – talk about Lions, Tigers, and Bears O My! All I can say is this, if you are not a residency person but you do work with a residency officer, walk down the hall and thank them. Another Residency Workshop in the books, and I am happy to report it was a roaring success with great discussion and information shared.

SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE

The OACRAO Scholarship Committee is very excited to hit the ground running to raise money and award scholarships to deserving students. Any amount of support is vital to students, as they work towards their academic goals. The OACRAO Scholarship Committee is developing fresh ideas for this new season of supporting students, their families and ultimately their communities. We hope to have another stellar year of giving, from inside and outside of OACRAO.

Now that we finally have some great weather, our spirits should be high, we should feel rejuvenated and motivated to move and make things happen. We look forward to seeing you at the OACRAO Annual Conference, where you cannot lose. There will be a wealth of information, networking, fun, and an opportunity to play a part in keeping the OACRAO Scholarship Committee alive, for the benefit of OUR students!
